COIMBRA

ADDRESS

Av. da Guarda Inglesa 1a, 3040-193 Coimbra

web address: <https://www.coimbraconvento.pt/pt/>

HOW TO GET THERE?

1 -FROM LISBON AIRPORT

From Lisbon you can easily arrive at Coimbra by train departing from Oriente station in Lisbon and arriving at Coimbra train station terminal B. This will take you about 2h10 min with the intercities or alfa services. You can check the timetables in the link below.

<http://www.cp.pt/cp/displayPage.do?vgnextoid=87cbd5abe2a74010VgnVCM1000007b01a8c0RCRD> and select Lisboa/Porto-Braga-Guimaraes to download the timetables. There are trains approximately every hour.

Leaving from Portela airport to Oriente train station is best done by taxi as the airport is located in the city centre. You can take the taxi directly to the train station. The distance is short although the traffic may delay you. It should not cost you more than 10€. Instead, you can ask to go to Alameda (about 5€ by taxi) and from there take the metro to Oriente station, red line (0.75€).

2 -FROM OPORTO AIRPORT

You can easily arrive at Coimbra by train departing from Campanhã station in Oporto and arriving at Coimbra train station terminal B. This will take you about 1h10 min with the intercities or alfa services. You can check the timetables in the link above the same way.

The best way to go from Francisco Sá Carneiro Airport to Campanhã train station is by metro. Line E (Violet) connects Airport Station to Campanhã Station. The travel time is around 30 minutes with a waiting time of 20 min. The metro station is located just in front of the arrivals zone of the International Francisco Sá Carneiro Airport, in parallel with the two existing road ways. For more details you can check the link below.
